The Jewish Chronicle (UK)	Good riddance "Credit is due to Tim Farron. Last year he told the JC that 'antisemitism should be called out at every single opportunity it rears its ugly head'. In sacking David Ward as a LibDem candidate he has acted on those words — and swiftly, less than 24 hours after Mr Ward was selected by the Bradford East LibDems. Wednesday was a good day all round in the fight against mainstream antisemitism, with the vote earlier in the day by the NUS to remove Malia Bouattia as its president. Ms Bouattia, remember, was condemned by the Home Affairs Select Committee for her 'obvious racism'. In their very different ways, both Mr Ward and Ms Bouattia injected poison into our politics. That both have now been given their marching orders is a welcome development."	EDITORIAL	Attitudes toward Israel in UK politics & on UK college campuses
