The Washington Post	Without a Syria policy, Trump has no Iran policy	JENNIFER RUBIN	Syria, Iran
The Washington Post	What Trump ought to learn from a terrorist attack in Egypt Over the past year, militants have repeatedly fired rockets from Sinai into Israeli territory. All the while, hundreds of Egyptian soldiers have died, often in roadside ambushes or car bombings. A more aggressive Egyptian military crackdown, bolstered by Israeli assistance, including drone strikes, can't seem to neutralize the threat.	ISHAAN THAROOR	Sinai
The Washington Post	Trump is getting the zero-sum game he wants in the Middle East	ISHAAN THAROOR	US foreign policy
Newsweek	Tel Aviv Diary: A Lesson in How to Offend American Jews The minister's canard about US Jews in the armed forces drew praise from a Nazi website.	MARC SCHULMAN	Diaspora-Israel relations

Huffington Post	No Peace Without Justice! “...Every year Kristallnacht is solemnly remembered – one night of virulent antisemitism which marked a turning point in the Nazi barbaric campaign of genocide against the Jewish people. Yet, even though so many ‘Nights of Broken Glass’ occurred all over the Arab world, those seemed to have escaped world attention. The history of persecution of Jews in Arab countries is an undeniable fact, yet we see no hint of an international community willing to address it, or even recognize its mere existence! Acknowledging the pain of so many who left so much behind as a key for future settlement seems to be a well established principle of conflict resolution, yet as far as Jewish suffering is concerned, this suddenly seems inapplicable...”	SHAHAR AZANI	Jews from Islamic countries
The National Interest	Kushner Can't Bring Peace to the Middle East Kushner is trying to secure a major Middle East peace deal, but it is unclear whether he recognizes that both the Saudis and the Netanyahu government have agendas of their own.	DOV S. ZAKHEIM	US-Israel relations, peace process

- The Israel Foreign Media Survey scours the internet (Sunday thru Thursday) for pertinent news articles and editorials affecting Israel appearing in the world's major newspapers and websites for the particular day(s) stated.
- The survey attempts to present only original source articles, occasionally resorting to reprints in special cases.
  - Stories by wire agencies and major newspapers (ex: AP, Reuters, NY Times etc.) often are licensed or sold to smaller market media agencies, and appear in the survey in their original with other publications in parentheses.
