The New York Times	Forget the Strategy Paper. Watch What He Does. The overwhelming majority of member nations thus defied Mr. Trump's threats to withhold aid from countries backing the resolution. Only small states allied with the United States and Israel voted against the resolution: Guatemala, Honduras, Palau, Nauru, the Marshall Islands, Micronesia and Togo.	EDITORIAL	US-Israel relations, peace process, Jerusalem, UN
The New York Times	United in Defiance of Trump	PATRICK CHAPPATTE	US-Israel relations, peace process, Jerusalem, UN
New York Post	Anti-Israel General Assembly should feel shamed — not the US	BENNY AVNI	US-Israel relations, peace process, Jerusalem, UN
New York Post	Halev played hardball with the UN — and it worked	EDITORIAL	US-Israel relations, peace process, Jerusalem, UN
New York Daily News	UN-acceptable madness as United Nations attacks America over Jerusalem	EDITORIAL	US-Israel relations, peace process, Jerusalem, UN
The Wall Street Journal	Next Year in Jerusalem The U.N. reveals the depth of its anti-U.S., anti-Israel politics. When Donald Trump made good this month on his campaign promise to recognize Jerusalem as the capital of Israel, it changed almost nothing on the ground: The reality is that Jerusalem has been Israel's capital for decades.	EDITORIAL	US-Israel relations, peace process, Jerusalem, UN

The Washington Post	What is the real value of Jerusalem?	ASLI AYDINTASBAS	US-Israel relations, peace process, Jerusalem, UN
The Washington Post	Did Trump try to lose today's United Nations vote on Israel? In most countries, both Trump and Israel are unpopular. Choosing Israel's side is difficult for many governments in normal times. It becomes even more difficult when combined with a public threat by an unpopular U.S. president.	ERIK VOETEN	US-Israel relations, peace process, Jerusalem, UN
The Washington Post	The deadly gamesmanship on Jerusalem President Trump's decision to recognize Jerusalem as Israel's capital is part of his calculus of intricate steps he deems necessary to bringing peace to the Middle East and to scoring points with his political base.	COLBERT I. KING	US-Israel relations, peace process, Jerusalem, UN
The Washington Post	Sweden's new wave of anti-Semitism Trump's decision to relocate the U.S. embassy in Israel to Jerusalem has provoked attacks on synagogues in Sweden as well as openly expressed threats to kill Jews.	AJE CARLBOM	Sweden, anti-Semitism
The Washington Post	How the end of the two-state solution can transform the Palestinian struggle Israel needs a Palestinian state. The biggest threat to Israel as an ethnostate — a “Jewish” state — isn't military but demographic — a Palestinian “state” can ensure a Jewish majority in the “Jewish” state. Instead, current Israeli leaders think that they can push Palestinians into Bantustans, or just keep crushing them indefinitely.	IYAD EL-BAGHDADI	Peace process
Los Angeles Times	Trump is right about Jerusalem, but that's not the help Israel needs If Trump truly wants to help Israel, he will focus more on curbing the Iranian threat.	MAX BOOT	US-Israel relations, peace process, Jerusalem, UN
Newsweek	Why Is Abbas Making Such a Fuss About Jerusalem? Many people have bought into the myth that Jerusalem and Israel were stolen from the Palestinians.	MARVIN HIER	Palestinian Authority, peace process, Jerusalem
The Christian Science Monitor	In overwhelming UN vote on Jerusalem, a reality test for Trump's tough talk modes of thought Is US foreign aid altruistic or self-serving? Trump's pre-vote rhetoric seemed to reopen that debate, but in the early aftermath is a hint at a pragmatic answer.	HOWARD LAFRANCHI	US-Israel relations, peace process, Jerusalem, UN

The Hill	President Trump's incredible friendship with Israel is one to applaud	RABBI SHMULEY BOTEACH	US-Israel relations
The Toronto Star	When it comes to the Middle East, Ottawa sits on its hands to keep Trump happy Abstaining on a UN vote Thursday caps a year of Ottawa ensuring it doesn't rattle the U.S. president's cage during NAFTA talks	TIM HARPER	US-Israel relations, peace process, Canada, Jerusalem, UN
Toronto Sun	UN key in Israel's creation but treats Jewish state with open contempt	LORRIE GOLDSTEIN	UN-Israel relations
The Spectator	America has sometimes stood proudest at the UN when it has stood alone	STEPHEN DAISLEY	US-Israel relations, peace process, Jerusalem, UN
Deutsche Welle	Donald Trump's 'take names' threat at UN unbecoming of the US At least as significant as the UN vote on Jerusalem was the Trump administration's response to it. For it shows the president is ready to play to his domestic base even on the international stage	MICHAEL KNIGGE	US-Israel relations, peace process, Jerusalem, UN
Hurriyet	What will Trump do to the 128 countries now?	MURAT YETKIN	US-Israel relations, peace process, Jerusalem, UN
Hurriyet	UN vote on Jerusalem sets a historic precedent	SERKAN DEMIRTAS	US-Israel relations, peace process, Jerusalem, UN

- The Israel Foreign Media Survey scours the internet (Sunday thru Thursday) for pertinent news articles and editorials affecting Israel appearing in the world's major newspapers and websites for the particular day(s) stated.
- The survey attempts to present only original source articles, occasionally resorting to reprints in special cases.
 - Stories by wire agencies and major newspapers (ex: AP, Reuters, NY Times etc.) often are licensed or sold to smaller market media agencies, and appear in the survey in their original with other publications in parentheses.
