Daily Mail	Trump tells Netanyahu he wants to make a Middle East peace deal - but Israel needs to hold back 'a little bit' on settlements Donald Trump said he believes that he and Benjamin Netanyahu can make a Middle East peace deal, emphasizing the length of their relationship. Trump affirmed his administration's position that settlement building hurts the peace process. Netanyahu said he believes that he and Trump can 'arrive at an understanding so we don't keep bumping into each other on this issue'. Trump also said he'll endorse whatever agreement Israel and Palestine make when it comes to peace - whether that's a two-state solution or not. Leaders revealed that they're looking at a regional approach that 'would take in many, many countries and it would cover a very large territory'. U.S. president was non-committal about moving embassy from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem: 'I'd love to see that happen. We're looking at it very, very strongly'. - The Israel Foreign Media Survey scours the internet (Sunday thru Thursday) for pertinent news articles and editorials affecting Israel appearing in the world’s major English edition newspapers and web sites for the particular day(s) stated.
- The survey attempts to present only original source articles, occasionally resorting to reprints in special cases.
  - Stories by wire agencies and major newspapers (ex: AP, Reuters, NY Times etc.) often are licensed or sold to smaller market media agencies, and appear in the survey ONLY in their original
